A GREENWICH, CONNECTICUT HOME WITH CUTTING-EDGE STYLE

Designer Joe Nahem radically reimagines traditional interiors as a setting for bold contemporary art

Text by Dan Shaw | Photography by Simon Upton | Produced by Michael Reynolds

In the dining room, a bespoke light sculpture by David Wiseman from R 20th Century is suspended above the Fox-Nahem–designed table and chairs, the latter upholstered in a Knoll Luxe fabric; a Christophe Côme sideboard from Cristina Grajales Gallery stands beneath a Richard Prince canvas.