NOT YOUR THIRD-GRADE TERRARIUM. The garden designer Paula Hayes's modern terrariums, in biomorphically shaped glass containers (handblown by Jeff Zimmerman), are attracting art-world bigwigs, like the dealer David Zwirner and the artist David Hammond. But these personal ecosystems don't come cheap; the dome shown here, which measures 21 by 21 by 13.5 inches, is $10,000. Available through Salon 94, (646) 672-9212, and at R 20th Century, 82 Franklin Street.
